—Gail Roberts, Fairfax County Public Library, Fairfax, VA

DREAMS OF FALLING
by Karen White
(Berkley)

"Set in the Lowcountry of South Carolina, this story does what Southern fiction does best: family, lies, and secrets. For fans of Patti Callahan Henry and Mary Alice Monroe."

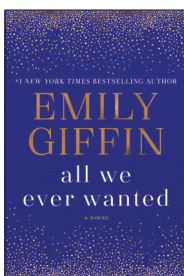

— Leanne Milliman, Charlevoix Public Library, Charlevoix, MI

THE KISS QUOTIENT
by Helen Hoang
(Berkley/Jove)

"A wonderfully sweet and erotic romance featuring an autistic heroine who hires a hot male escort to teach her how to enjoy sex, but learns so much more."

— Elizabeth Gabriel, Milwaukee Public Library, Milwaukee, WI

ALL WE EVER WANTED
A Novel
by Emily Giffin
(Ballantine Books)

"Great storyline that is relevant to issues both facing young people today and the people raising them. The story keeps you guessing."

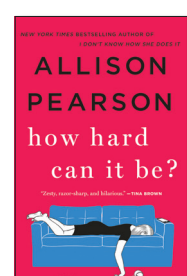

—Sarah Trohoske, Erie County Public Library, Erie, PA

LITTLE BIG LOVE
